

RHODA BAND

ABOUT RHODA (ROE dah,); (Rose)

Rhoda was a house help girl in the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark (Acts 12:13). According to tradition, the house in Jerusalem was the site of the last supper. It may also have been the headquarters of the early Church in Jerusalem.

When Apostle Simeon Peter (the Rock) was miraculously released from prison (Act 12:7-11), he went to Mary's house. Rhoda answered his knock but was filled with such excitement, surprise and joy that she forgot to let him in, only to run back into the house to tell the others praying for him.

Peter had to continue knocking until someone let him in (Act 12:6).

Rhoda Band consists of mainly female teenagers.
